

LON LOTT—Four-year seat

Alpine has been home to Lon and his family for over 33 years. He and Lorraine have raised their 6 children here. He has been a successful small business owner for 27 years.

Lon has been serving on the City Council since March of 2014. Within the course of his service, his ability to be impartial, listen to, and understand the sometimes difficult and complex issues have been and will continue to be his focus.

Lon's desire is to encourage unity and civility, respect for personal property rights, and provide correct and balanced information for the residents of Alpine City.

As part of his duties on the Council, he is currently serving on the Governing Board of the Utah Lake Commission and participates in Mountain Land Association of Governments.

Lon understands the importance of developing and preserving a sense of community, and because of his love for the people of Alpine, he will always be involved in ways that will help bring unity to our city. Lon will represent the ideals and values that have made Alpine a great place to live.
