Pre-pasted • Wallpaper borders come pre-pasted, making it even more effortless to install it. Makes a great DIY project • Since the boundaries of our wallpapers are easy to work with, they make for a great project at home using simple tools. Tips as you make a purchase Round up measurements • As you buy wallpaper, be sure to get more than accurate measurement so you have extra work to do. • Although accidents are not beneficial, they can happen. It is better to have more paper than less. Order from one batch • New product varieties constantly come every day. Colors and tones are constantly evolving. Although the two lengths of boundaries may be similar in design, they may end up looking a little different. • For this reason, make sure all the boundaries of your wallpaper in rolls come from the same manufacturer's lot. Check the packaging • Wallpaper packaging sometimes comes packed like a pair of rolls. Always check if your order comes as a single or double package, so you don't get in half or twice as much as you need. Tips for installation Choose the best place to hang the border. • The wallpaper boundaries are located best in the upper third or lower third of the wall. Imagine where it stands out best before installing it. Prepare the wall accordingly • Place the wall area where you want to place the boundary easily to smooth it, and then clean it properly with clean water, soap and sponge. • Fill all holes and cracks and sand them over to smooth them out. Heat the wall section • Use a level and tape measure to confirm that the wall is flat. This will help you align the border so that it does not appear crooked. • Mark the path where the border is located Pencil. It goes hand in hand with the test that the wall is level to create a smooth, straight finish.
