Behr I. When Behr let us know about the launch of Marquee, its new single-face collection, we knew we had to check it out. From bold greens to soothing shades of brown, these new colors are going to get you really excited about your home's next color work. It's no secret that color can change a room, but committing to the bold color of your space can be a bit daunting. To help you streamline the process with some instructions for the pros, we reached out to designer Jamie Davis portola colors and glazed for one mission; Find the best blue color colors for each mood and style. From neutral, soft shades to bold statement tones, blue is an endless range. And as Davis says, the only no-no is afraid of color and doesn't follow your heart. Meet The Expert Jamie Davis is the designer and founder of Portola Paint, where he combines his talent and experience with his brother, Casey Davis, to give customers inspiration and guidance. They are regularly featured on HGTV, MyDomaine, House Beautiful, and many other sites. Color Family: BlueComplementary Colors: Red, Yellow, orangePairs Well: All colorsModic, moody, moodyWhere to use: Great walls and trim or front doors Get inspired by the best blue color colors for every style and energy you're trying to capture at home. 01 10 Calm vibe, go super-pale, light blue with exquisite gray and neutral undertones, advises Davis. Then introduce some soft grays, whites, pinks and reds. Portola Paints Revere is the perfect shade if you're looking for something transitional and timeless to last throughout the year. You can play up the undertones of blue, or switch to green. We also see it looking gorgeous with some chocolate brown pieces. Portola Paints Revere $Upon Request Shop 02 10 Think evergreen shades of blue to add a touch of kapunk. Keep things cool with other shades of blues, grays and whites, or warm things up with burnt orange, bronze, warm brown wood and sharp shades of black. This will give your space a fresh take on traditional décor. Farrow & Ball Lulworth Blue $110 Shop 03 10 Brett Mickan Interior Design If you want to pop energy. Davis suggests going with a rich jewel tone. We like how the pale pistachio green hue balances the drama achieved with jewel-toned blue and other glam elements in this bar space. Try jewel-toned blue kitchen cabinets or dining with official effect. Portola Paints Kimono $Upon Request Shop 04 10 You can not go wrong soft sky blue. It has excellent kitchen cabinets and smaller powder rooms, thanks to the sweet, soothing effect. Layer another shade of blue ornaments, and then bring more dimension to tiled flooring. Benjamin Moore's Innocence $11 Shop 05 10 Try the light shades of blue undertones green for an energies and happy atmosphere. It the room is unexpectedly fun and bright thanks to accent walls, but the traditional elements of space keep things from feeling grown up and refined. On the swatch for Sharkskin, as the name suggests, this color seems to read quite gray, but when you get it up in a light filled space, the playfulness really stands out! Davis explains. Portola Paints Sharkskin $Upon Request Shop 06 10 If you want to go moody, choose a rich blue elegant redneck, but keep things fresh with the feeling only painting the accent wall and introducing some peach details. Earthy undertones grind throughout the room and allow you to mix some warmer tones instead of staying cool with a palette. Benjamin Moore Slate Teal $11 Shop 07 10 Rich navy tone is a classic, timeless look that has a large library or romantic dining and living room areas, Davis says. When paired with deep navy tones, I like to bring warm shades of sand or medium to light grays instead of bright white to soften the contrast. Portola Paints Newton's Indigo $Upon Request Shop 08 10 Droplet of cobalt blue wakes everyone up in your space. Bring contrast to mustard-yellow pieces, crisp white accents and bold geometric prints. Sherwin Williams Hyper Blue $38 Shop 09 10 Zeke Ruelas; Design by Emily Henderson If you want blue, which isn't too dark but still brings a pop of color to your space, you can't go wrong with this tone that looks especially gorgeous with high gloss. Farrow & Ball Stiffkey Blue $110 Shop 10 10 blue dust gray undertones looking chic in every room. If you're looking for a timeless color, it's a safe bet. Benjamin Moore Deep Secret $14 Shop fresh coat of paint is an easy way to instantly refresh your interior, but choosing the right shade can be a challenge. To help us, experts at Behr Paint revealed the most popular colors that homeowners have used in home décor projects. Based on the most popular color families, they created a guide to all the tones, tones, and tones you want to know before choosing the right color for your home. Whether you're looking for thick red and oranges, or preferring finer green and blue tones, it's a color for you. Behr Paint Take a look at the most popular colors of each color family below to start prepprep for your next DIY project. Behr Paint 01 18 Navy is a classic, and for good reason. It's timeless and classic, but it can also add a bit of drama to the space. If the color looks too dark for you, try it in the pressure wall. Behr Very Navy $24 Shop 02 18 blue dust gray undertones looking chic in every room. If you are looking for a timeless color, it is a safe bet. Behr Starless Night $42 Shop 03 18 Catherine Kwong Design splash of cobalt blue wakes everyone up Space. Bring contrast to mustard-yellow pieces, crisp white accents and bold geometric prints. Behr Dark Cobalt Blue $24 Shop 04 18 Style maven and interior design star Emily Henderson recently renovated her kitchen with a fresh layer of green paint. I love this green because it's completely timeless, but still fitting in something old world and classic, he tells us. Use bold colors like a green kitchen on an island to give the room a fun, unexpected hit of color. Behr Currently $42 Shop 05 18 more modest approach, choose a shade of green color that is not so bold. In this Scandinavian-inspired space, the green color acts as a neutral element of the room and does not disturb the eye. Remember to always follow your gut instinct. Decorist celebrity designer Jonathan Rachman says. If you're not ready for bright colors, stick to what's best in keeping with your style. Behr Jungle Camouflage $30 Shop 06 18 Designer Sophie Ashby's studio in Ashby opts for a rustic approach. When choosing the perfect shade of green, I always prefer greens with a bit of muddy, earthy or smokyness for them, he muses. Behr Brook Green $31 Shop 07 18 When you're up goes bold, red never makes a statement. The enchanting, optimistic power of red brings energy to every space, says Andrea Magno, color and design expert benjamin moore. Behr Dark Crimson $31 Shop 08 18 JH Interior Design bright and vibrant red may feel a bit like many walls, but you can take a cue from this bookshelf and use it to accent the color, painting interior shelves or trim a bold space of pop. Behr Flirt Alert $32 Shop 09 18 Photo courtesy of House to Home It may be time to take a break from light and airy whites. According to Magno, people are experimenting with deeper tones, such as dark blue, black and deeper blue-greens, and gestures of bolder colors of the red family. Behr Firecracker $33 Shop 10 18 Studio Ashby If in doubt, tan is a failsafe way to help warm up the room. Here, the neutral tan color contrasts with the lighter gray wall to give the dimension of this living room. Behr Pale Honey $22 Shop 11 18 Mustard Yellow is a romantic, fearless pop of color when used as a white, neutral canvas. Caitlin Murray of Black Lacquer Design says. In a bright space like the one above, mustard yellow adds the last touch to make the space feel more playful. Aside from breaking up the neutral color scheme and making it visually unique, mustard yellow also heats things up. Behr Yellow Groove $32 Shop 12 for 18 @Benjamin Moore Contrast naturally cool room with this warm yellow hue. It brings sunlight to your room, even if you don't get a lot of natural light. Behr Honey Locust $28 Shop 13 18 Fiona Lynch For a serene and quiet vibe in today's space, try super-pale, light gray subtle blue undertones, advises Jamie

Davis, co-founder of Portola Paints & The Glazes. This mix of grey shades is very white, pink and red. Behr Swirling Water $16 Shop 14 18 courtesy of Nate Berkus It looks like the hall is just grey, but there are so many different shades to choose from. We love it because it works almost like a white room with a lot of natural light, but a slightly richer feel. Behr Dutch White $40 Shop 15 18 Dramatic, elegant vibe, choose wine shades. Timeless color pairs well blacks, tans and blues, and looks particularly stunning in the dining room. Behr Divine Wine$36 Shop 16 18 Pink may not be for you, but that doesn't mean you should sign off on a peach. The shade offers the same light, warmth and cuddle, but in a more subtle way. This tone works best in a room with plenty of natural light. Behr Porcelain Peach $44 Shop 17 18 This rustic color is a neutral color your home is missing. A little creamier than tan, but more pigmented than beige, Sienna Dust is ideal for walls, trim, and contrasts beautifully brown. Behr Sienna Dust $32 Shop 18 18 Chris Patey for MyDomaine Go dare or go home. Granted, orange may not be your first to choose your living room walls, but it will definitely give your front door a wow-factor. Behr Tart Orange $32 Shop Shop
