Yeezy 700 v3 safflower

Kanye has another new adidas Yeezy 700 V3 due for release this year called, Safflower and has a yellow color. While we wait for the Azareth 700 V3 to be released next month, we've just got another glimpse of what the future holds for the newly scouted 700 V3. Similar to the OG 700, Kanye has taken advantage of the new love of many V3-edition sneaker fans and hasn't missed out on the colorway yet. This new iteration should arrive as usual, but with a yellow upper jaw with eggshells. Black details will fall on the tongue and laces, while the yellow toned TPU cage will have glow-in-the-dark technology as normal. A stone grey rubber midsole coats eva foam midsole while the matching rubber supsol completes the new Fall design. Another brand new 700 V3 offering that fans are willing to buy. The upcoming offer is perhaps the brightest V3 kolorway yet, only overtaking Arzareth. Orange accents complement the pair's design, while the black inner part features laces and tongue.
