[viator_tour destination=684 type=3-mod] Bellagio TripAdvisor LLC Bellagio is on virtually every list of the best hotels in Las Vegas, and for good reason: It has everything you want in an exclusive casino resort. Good looks, adventurous attractions, world-class restaurants and a level of comfort that makes it just right. Its famous fountains dance to Rachmaninov, which is impressive art in the grand lobby, and the Bellagio's indoor conservatory and botanical gardens are carefully decorated, down to every petalled detail, for every season. There are swimming pools, Cirque du Soleil shows, shops galore, and rooms that can make everyone feel at home. As for the elegant casino, you'll recognize it from Ocean's 11th-century casino. Stay in the main tower for extra privacy and panoramic views, or get a fountain room and crank up the accompanying music in your room for full effect. Amenities: Italian marble bathrooms, soaking bathtub, 40-inch flat screen HDTV, auto draperies control, luxe bedding and robes, Eucalyptus wooden furniture, organic carpets, Bellagio Cashmere Super Pillow top mattress, many restaurants par excellence (including acclaimed Le Cirque), swimming pools with cabanas, spa, salon, and extensive Services. Book it: Get rates for Bellagio and other Las Vegas Four Seasons TripAdvisor LLC One of the best luxury hotels in Las Vegas, Four Seasons offers a quieter and more relaxed Las Vegas experience. It has no casino and manages to be centrally located but still far enough away from the Strip's fuss. Certainly one of the best hotels in Las Vegas, this luxury property derives understated elegance. The lobby is classic with dynamic artwork, and the staff is gracious and practical, typically providing guests with Four Seasons service and comfort. Rooms are stylish with Art Deco details; Choose from a view of the strip or over the Red Rock National Conservation Area and its magnificent sunsets and sunrises. If you want more excitement during a stay at the Four Seasons, you have direct access to Mandalay Bay's casino and entertainment options. Amenities: Marble-floored bathroom, bathtub, backlit mirror, frameless shower, down noodles and duvets, terry cloth bathrobes, pet-friendly policies, business service, gym, award-winning spa, and Veranda restaurant for authentic Italian cuisine. Book it: Get prices for Four Seasons Las Vegas and other Las Vegas Hotels Delano TripAdvisor LLC One of the newer properties on the Strip - it opened in 2014 - has already taken its place among the best hotels in Vegas. It is modern and elegant, and one of the city's rare smoke-free hotels. With calm elegance everywhere, rotating art installations, gracious service and a location in the Mandalay Bay complex, Delano's suites are loppetjans and beautiful, made of modern style and natural materials - think of curtains and oversized tufted headboards. These rooms are spacious and comfortable, and their neutral tones nicely reflect their desert surroundings. Ask for a strip or mountain views from one of the upper floors. Amenities: Spa-style bathrooms with soaking bathtubs, in-suite living room, 46-inch TV in the bedroom, 55-inch TV in the living room, media hub, pet-friendly policies, Bathroom gym and spa (treatments incorporate locally sourced ingredients), fine dining at Rivea restaurant, Skyfall nightclub, plus a swimming pool and cabanas at Delano Beach Club. Book it: Get prices for Delano and other Las Vegas Hotels Nobu TripAdvisor LLC In 2013, chef Nobu Matsuhisa and actor Robert De Niro opened a hotel version of their beloved restaurant chain inside Caesars Palace, which many now hail as one of the most romantic hotels in Las Vegas. While this may sound like a strange concept, it actually works beautifully, especially thanks to enthusiastic staff and designer David Rockwell's ability to create sleek but quiet spaces. The experience starts with a very personal check-in process, then a trip up an elevator without buttons. Then you enter your spacious room and enjoy welcome delightful hehedsgrad deliightful hehedsgrad tea and a rice cracker. Japanophiles will delight in the serene décor, and foodies will enjoy the extensive in-room dining room. Try the green-tea waffle for breakfast, and request a view of the city. Facilities: Bathrooms with grey stone floors, black tile shower, Lynova microcotton towels, Natura Bisse toiletries, Fili D'oro bed linen and down pillows, 55-inch flat screen TV, herbal sleep oil and tea, spacious closet, bathrobes, take-home slippers, Sharper Picture alarm clock, double-paned windows, 24-hour room service, onsite Nobu restaurant, business lounge, gym, Qua, and extended checkout time available on request. Book it: Get prices for Nobu Hotel and other Las Vegas Cosmopolitan TripAdvisor LLC Hotels Talk about your grand entrance. Big, bold, and sparkly, cosmopolitan is all about excitement. It's unapologetically Vegas, right on the Strip, and yet despite its flash and grandeur, it manages to provide service that makes it one of the best hotels in Las Vegas. This is where stylish young travelers come to see and be seen- Cosmopolitan is home to raucous nightlife, high-stakes gaming, big-name concerts and flirty lounges. The rooms are just as bold and modern as the rest of the resort. Request yours with a view. Amenities: Marble-floored bathrooms, UNITED BIGelow toiletries, double-head showers, Japanese soaking bathtubs, balconies in some rooms, 100,000 square feet casino, Marquee dayclub and nightclub, three swimming pools, two fitness centers, tennis courts, Sahara Spa, room service, concierge service, business center, dog-friendly policies, and a large collection of restaurants, including two of Jose Kok Andres. Book it: Few prices for Cosmopolitan and other Las Vegas hotels Mandarin Oriental TripAdvisor LLC Mandarin Oriental is one of the very best hotels in Las Vegas, and the city's only independent hotel with five stars from Forbes. Thanks to the brand's legendary hospitality - service here is welcoming, sophisticated and very welcoming - as well as the property's beautiful LEED-certified architecture and décor, it's an elegant modern take on Asian themes. There is no casino and no smoke, which makes it a more relaxing stay than other hotels on the Strip, and that's despite the Mandarin Oriental's enviable location at the entrance to citycenter. Friendly pepper robot greets you in the 23rd-floor lobby before arriving at your amazing suite, which will have floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the Strip. Amenities: Luxury bath salts, large HDTV, afternoon tea service, gym, full-service spa, excellent Twist by Pierre Gagnaire restaurant and Mandarin Bar with giant windows overlooking the Strip. Book it: Get prices for Mandarin Oriental and other Las Vegas hotels Wynn and Encore TripAdvisor LLC These two identical curved towers are sister properties, and are among the best hotels in Vegas. Between them, they've got 4,750 luxurious rooms and suites, 189,000 square feet of games, 24 restaurants, including a pair of celebrity chefs, two spas, 11 bars, a beach club, an 18-hole golf course, and three nightclubs that bring in big-name artists. At Wynn, Japanese gardens surround a koi pond and a 90-foot waterfall, and a dreamlike show called Le Reve fascinates. Both hotels offer tower suites – a super-luxury overnight experience. Hotelier Steve Wynn may be a controversial figure, but there's no doubt his classic properties are beautiful places to stay. Amenities: Everything listed above, plus beauty salons, business services, many retail stores, a gym and extensive concierge services. Book it: Get prices for Encore and Wynn and other Las Vegas hotels The Venetian and Palazzo TripAdvisor LLC These landmark Las Vegas Strip hotels are sister properties, connected to each other via a beautiful indoor walkway. Both are all-suite properties, and Venetian standard rooms are almost twice the size of your average Las Vegas hotel dig. This resort conjures Italy through and through, from the dramatic Italian exterior with real gondola rides and columns galore to interiors that replicate some of Italy's most famous sites. Under a ceiling painted like heaven are Grand Canal Shoppes, where you can buy the latest in designer fashion, or have dinner brewed by a celebrity chef-this is home to Wolfgang Puck's Cut, Thomas Keller's Bouchon, and Emeril Lagasse's Delmonico. These large rooms are luxuriously decorated, and stylish Tao Beach rocks both day and night. Amenities: In addition to those listed above, comfort beds, excellent concierge service, a 120,000 square foot casino, Canyon Ranch SpaClub, an onsite Barneys New York, Aquatic Club pool experience, plus an additional five-acre pool and garden deck. Book it: Few prices for Venetians and Palazzo Mandalay Bay TripAdvisor LLC Mandalay Bay offers the complete Las Vegas resort experience in style and comfort. Its 3,211 spacious rooms, done in clean lines, are sprayed with color and art. The staff is genuine, creating a refined but fun stay. This resort spans 120 acres, so there's a lot here: a big casino, big-name entertainment venues, rockin' nightlife, award-winning restaurants, plenty of shopping and Mandalay Bay Beach, a tropical-themed pool with cabanas and real sand. There is also the Shark Reef Aquarium, with more than 2,000 deep-sea animals to see. All this also makes it one of the most child-friendly hotels in Las Vegas. Facilities: In addition to those listed above, large in-room TV, in-room Jacuzzi bathtub, Spa Mandalay, gym, swimming pools, room service, free Wi-Fi, business center, kid-friendly policies, dry cleaning services, and concierge services.
