In preparation, I thought I'd mention it. You might end up going from England and getting married in Sorrento and honeymooning in Santorini. If you're going, I don't know how you can talk about a romantic hotel, and certainly if you post about romantic, people will be thinking of couples, couple-oriented resorts, couples as well as couples of kids! - Santorini is not the best place for kids. - All locationsSantorini, Imerovigli is probably one of the worst places for children, especially small places, ;-Many hotels in the cliff-top locations of Fira and Oa don't take children, including Anastasis (as far as I know!) and you can also read anastasis reviews and you'll find that almost everyone says they're not suitable for families with young children or teenagers. * Like, I'm sure they won't take kids of any age including teenager-level contributors 187 posts 43 reviews 27 helpful votes 5 at 99.999%. Re: Anastasis Apartments Santorini 12 years ago don't use a travel agency, but it depends on you and your comfort level by giving personal I.D. information on the Internet. So far, there is no problem for me in many years of travel. Do you misunderstand it? I don't know why I ask someone else to book it for you (travel agent) will improve in booking directly with the hotel. Agents are not cheaper, more complicated to go wrong. Then all you need is a flight. Again, there is also no benefit to using them unless the travel agent can come up with a better deal (not when I generally tried, not for Santorini). I booked a flight directly with the hotel and Anastasis also arranged a transfer (aka taxi) for us at a very reasonable price. Level Contributor 187 Posts 43 Reviews 27 Helpful Votes 8.Re: Anastasis Apartments Santorini Thanks 12 years ago, I found a website, I had missed spelling it out. I can ask if these are near the airport, people recommend booking a car or a taxi transfer is wise. They look stunning. My husband and I are thinking of taking a break in September or next May, but what about the weather that month? Cheers :-)) Level contributors 25,643 posts 3 5 Review useful votes 9. Re: Anastasis Apartments Santorini 12 years ago Anastasis is within 20 minutes of the airport by taxi for 15 euros. I suggest you refrain from renting a car until you are there and haveBe sure you want one. Anastasis is very close to restaurants and shops, and there are few in Imerovigli. If you want easy access to everything, I suggest you focus on your search with either Filos Te fani or Oia. May and September are great months to visit. Level contributors 49,560 posts 82 reviews 193 helpful votes 10.Re: Anastasis Apartments Santorini is a 20-minute drive from the airport 12 years ago. Maybe it's already booked in September of this year, but you can always ask. May is OK weather, generally good days, cool nights, cool seas, I like September better, but both are better. If it's May, go as late as possible. A few minutes away there is a small taberna suitable for lunch, 15-20 minutes to Imerovigli and another 20 minutes hundreds to Fira. There is also a taberna that is about a 10-minute drive away. And another one that provides food. Whether you should rent a car depends on how long you are there, but my advice doesn't bother you on day one because you stare open-mouthed at the view and wonder how you drag yourself out. On the second day, you will get a bus to Orr and Fira. Day 3 exploring the island by bus or car. You can have your rental car delivered. If you get a taxi to get started, its easy arrival, less hassle, the driver knows where he's going, and you won't get lost in the middle of Fira. A welcome plus for many travelers: Anastasis Apartments is great for those interested in mobility issues if they don't have the typical (and tired) cliff steps of Santorini. There are bars and restaurants within walking distance, but most other medium and first half venues are set up for self-catering. If you want more than snacks on-site, you need to hit it into a higher category. Looking at this bottom line, a little subdued from the main road, Anastasis Apartments is marked with a green door of the sea inside the stone and brick entrance. Its traditional Cycladus architecture is filled with some modern elements like green doors, wooden decks and visibly beautiful grounds. The simple lobby is simple, with wooden floors, a small wooden desk among the arched floors and a rack of DVDs that can be rented nearby. The lounge is a little more upscale, with shiny tile floors, large L-shaped leather sofas around the fireplace, flat-screen TVs and a small set of wooden tables and chairs. This is also where you can find a business center for two computers and a printer and a collection of books to borrow. The outdoor décor is greener with gardens and beautiful volcanic stones. The site is meticulously planned, with succules, palms and potted plants emerging from the red pebble plot and maintained. There is also a large wooden terrace with a white veranda and a cushionless seating area overlooking the sea. See the scene outside the village itself, which stops along the top of the famous beautiful Imerovigli cliffs, while Anastasis Apartments is surrounded by caldera and other like-for-like properties with sea views. The apartments are just outside town, but supermarkets, restaurants, taverns and bus stops are a few minutes' walk away. The center of Imerovigli is about a 15-minute walk away, and Fira less than 2 miles away takes a short time. It takes a few hours on foot to get to the town of Orr, 4-5 miles north, but it has a great panorama. On the other hand, the ride time by car is about 15 minutes. Santorini Airport is around a 15-minute drive away and the sea port is 4 miles away.
