Peace - Pray for the souls of division, doubt, anxiety, panic and fear that grip our societies.2 Leadership - pray for wisdom, truth, guidance, compassion, and strength for all leaders (politicians, medical, economic, ecclesiastical, etc.) in power.3 Protection - Claiming the blood of Jesus as a shield on groups of people, institutions, systems, policies, processes, and on all spheres of life and society against COVID-19 and its effects.4 Immunity - daily talk strength and health to the immune systems (personal, family, friends, etc.) 5. Resources - Pray for adequate human and medical resources for our healthcare systems and adequate and necessary resources for all other sectors (i.e. finance) and institutions (i.e. schools).6 Test - Pray for rapid, appropriate, effective, adequate production, distribution, management and interpretation of tests locally so that For leaders to realistically ascertain the scope of the problem and provide them with strategies and resources to address the problem accurately and quickly.7 Strategies - Pray for the dissemination of effective strategies to identify the focal points and centers of the spread of the disease, and to socialize, in order to be generous with the regional, local, local and humanitarian uncertainties that it would say the rate and intensity of accidents, the treatment of patients at home and institutions, the accurate tracking of contacts, and all other epidemiological issues and solutions.8 Research - Pray for all types of researchers to develop fast, efficient, efficient, affordable and well-comfortable vaccine and CV treatments 19.9. Restoring institutions - Pray for all institutions and systems affected by this crisis (church, government, health care, schools, economy, companies, law enforcement and other first responders, and all other workplaces) that will be protected and returned to normal health performance.10 Salvation - Pray for all of us to come to the place of true repentance and total reliance on God in everything, and for God to release him to this world. Protect, provide, heal, restore, strength, salvation and all things that relate to life and piety. It is time for the Church to be the Church and the Minister embodies wisdom and love in everything we do. Be a witness to the kingdom.
