Fighting DeathSupreme Duelist Stickman is technically a fighting game with some remixes to become more of a party type fiasco. You play like blue when your enemy is yellow. Any The game gives you both a random weapon each. Maybe you have a sword, a sniper rifle, a laser beam, a hand grenade, and - at some point - only your fists. But that doesn't mean that every weapon is OP. Each weapon has its own strengths and weaknesses that keep them fully balanced. Simple Control Supreme DuelistA's excellent feature here is control. Although this is a fighting game, you don't have to remember to move the set like Mishima move sets or Hadouken. Instead, you only have a jump button, an attack button, and directions. When and how you attack is, of course, important. If you think this is a game, note that it takes advantage of frame data too – much like fighting games. Fun Ragdoll PhysicsJust like any stickman game, this one also has ragdoll physics that you can never get enough of. Even if you lose the match, you'd at least giggle. Well, you better try to play it with your friends and family to experience how much fun it works! Play Custom RulesPlay solo or two players, activate gravity, enable or disable shields, unlock insta kills, or let environmental traps do killing you. You can design the rules of the game of your own voli using it. Try this crazy game all for free and get into the fight to win the game!
