Fatal fury special game gear

Fatal Fury Special, known as the Garou Densetsu Special (餓狼伝SPECIAL) in Japan, is an improved version of SNK's one-on-one combat game, Fatal Fury 2. Starting his life on the Neo Geo MVS arcade platform, he was brought to a variety of home consoles including Sega Mega-CD and Sega Game Gear in 1995 and 1994 respectively. Gameplay The mega-CD version contains many improvements over Fatal Fury 2. This includes the ability to jump back and forth between the foreground and background, the new combined system, a larger cast of selectable characters, and faster game speed. The gameplay is quite faithful to the original version of Neo Geo. Some animation frames and background details (e.g. Big Bear or Joe Higashi stage crowds) have been removed for the Sega Mega-CD port. The Game Gear version has a punch and kick button that can be pressed together to launch a strong attack. There is no sidestep function.
