SÍGUENOS SÍGUENOS I've been using this app all my time, and it's great, but there's something you guys need to fix. So whenever I'm looking at a full-screen video file of the app and shooting down to see my notifications for other apps, or even when I shoot to my control center, or when you click out of the app for a little second or respond to a message, the app cuts in half. So I have to click out of the video, and find where I was. Or, even when a notification appears on the screen, saying that I have to update my device, an app is not downloaded, etc... this technical problem still happens. Literally cut the video in half, so that one part of the screen is black on the tone, and the other is still playing. This is terribly annoying, and I waited for you guys to fix it for at least three months, but still nothing. I would have given him five stars, but this technical problem is terrible, and you guys have to recognize it! Please! Hey, thank you for pointing that out! We're going to lie to each other!
