Edit External Links Comments Share October 17, 2020 - December 6, 2020 Saturday & Sunday 21:00 KST Start-Up (타트; Seutateueop is a 2020 South Korean television series starring Bae Suzy, Nam Joo Hyuk, Kim Seon Ho and Kang Han Na. The series revolves around a woman who dreams of becoming an entrepreneur like Steve Jobs, a man who is secretly her first love, and another man pretending to be her first love. The film will premiere on TVN on 17 October 2020 and will be broadcast every Saturday and Sunday at 21:00 KST. It is available for streaming on Netflix. Synopsis[edit | edit source] Young entrepreneurs realising dreams for success and love in the cutthroating world of Korea's high-tech industry. [Official Netflix Description],Start-Up is set in South Korea's fictional Silicon Valley, called Sandbox, and tells the story of people in the world of start-ups. Seo Dal Mi dreams of becoming Korea's Steve Jobs. She's an adventurer who doesn't own much, but has a grand plan for herself. She also has experience in a wide range of part-time jobs and is a person of great vitality. Nam Do San is the founder of Samsan Tech. He was once the pride of his family as a math genius, but for the past two years, he has been going nowhere with his company's investments. It turns out that Seo Dal Mi remembers him as her 'cool first love', and he decides to start a start-up in the hope of making seo Dal Mi's misunderstanding a reality. Han Ji Pyung starts a start-up company to pay off his debt. A team leader at SH Venture Capital, his amazing investment skills and sharp tongue earn him the nickname, the Gordan Ramsay of investments. Although he is prickly to most others, he is gentler than anyone else for a special person who has done him a great favor in the past. Finally, CEO Won In Jae has everything society respects: educational background, beautiful appearance, and money. She considers her background as a second generation chaebol as a weakness and does everything to create success on her own and be recognized for her skills. However, she ends up being used and discarded by her father, and to stop a throwaway piece on her father's chessboard, she throws herself into a start-up.
