The planning version will be available in April. The NFL's Week 16 game on Christmas Day ensures that the league will have played every day of the week during the 2020 season. A 4:30 p.m. kick-off between the Saints (10-4) and Vikings (6-8) will fall in the middle of the usual NBA holiday season, so if you're looking for a vision that isn.m't basketball, the NFL has arrived. Drew Brees will play his second game since returning from 11 fractured ribs, while Minnesota's loss a week ago crushed his slim chances of sneaking into the postseason. MORE: Watch today's NFL game live with fuboTVNew Orleans is coming off a loss to the Chiefs that made it difficult for the Saints the Packers for the NFC first-round bye, but Brees will likely look at Friday's game as an opportunity to keep going all the way to with the playoffs fast approaching. Below are more on the start times of the Christmas Day game in Week 16, plus everything you need to know to watch Saints vs. Saints. Date: Friday, December 25Matchup: Minnesota Vikings at New Orleans Saints.Location: Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans, Louisiana Kick-off time: 4:30 p.m. ETCi there really isn't a precedent for when the NFL is expected to start a Friday afternoon Christmas game, at least in recent memory. The league plays on Christmas Day every few years, but could pretty much choose any start time it wanted, and it went with late afternoon ET kick.m. This is the nfl's first game at Christmas since 2017, when there were two games. According to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, a total of 21 NFL games were played on Christmas before this one. On what channel are the Saints against the Vikings today? Without Thursday Night Football in Week 16, the services that normally broadcast that game get this Christmas Day game on Friday instead. This means the usual simulcast on Fox, NFL Network and Amazon Prime Video. Fox's #1 broadcast team usually works on these games, with Joe Buck as the play-by-play announcer and Troy Aikman as a black commentator.
