PINKFONG SPACE ADVENTURE AND BABY SHARK FROM DECEMBER 19, 2019 TO JANUARY 22, 2020 PINK FANG IS THE CHILDREN'S EDUCATIONAL BRAND SMARTSTUDY, A SOUTH KOREAN EDUCATIONAL ENTERTAINMENT COMPANY. Pinkfong is largely composed of childish songs, most famously Shark Baby, which has more than four billion views on YouTube. Their educational channel has more than 20 million subscribers, with brightly colored programming of stories, singing songs and dances shown by a pink fox named Pink Bong. The global product development company has more than 40 videos, songs, games and children's apps. The Pinkfong Formation was formed in June 2010 with the establishment of SmartStudy at their Seoul headquarters. A Los Angeles branch with several employees opened in 2016 and another is located in Shanghai. U.S. Branch CEO Ben Jeong said the name came from the pink fox character, and the fun voice of Fong that looked similar to the phone. The focus is on children aged one to five. By 2015, the company had released 520 mobile apps with central base apps such as Pinkfong Nursery Rhymes. CFO SmartStudy and co-founder Lee Ryan Seong-kyu said typical nursery rhymes are usually slow and quiet so they began with a small project, searching for a more up-and-down song for a new generation that will appeal globally. Pink Fang! Kids' Songs & Stories YouTube channel was launched on December 13, 2011, with the brand character, a pink or magenta-colored animated cartoon fox, a Prince from planet Staria, that was inspired by the fox in the classic French book The Little Prince by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry. Comparisons with Pinkfong's other animations joined another popular Anthropomeref character, Porro, a longtime favorite of children in South Korea, in the preschool education market. Both characters bed recognizable around the world and, like Pororo, children and parents began to link the pink fox with children's education. In May 2017, journalist Kim Yang-jeou of the JoongAng Ilbo newspaper wrote that Pinkfong, a pink desert fox character who combines a fox and a phone, is emerging as the second purro with housewives with young children calling him President Pinkfong. [9] Lee's CEO said that Pinkfong may have been described somewhere between Disney and Sesame Street. One August 2018, a comparison of YouTube channel subscribers showed that the established brand, Sesame Street, had 3.9 million subscribers and Pinkfong had 10 million subscribers. Million.
