Here we go Some tricks to find the fast impostor in Among Us is an online multiplayer video game developed by InnerSloth and released on June 15, 2018. The game has a group of players aboard a spacecraft, each of whom assumes one of two roles, most of which are crew members and some are impostors. The objective of the crew members is to identify the impostors and expel them from the ship, while maintaining the ship's functions, and the objective of the impostors is to kill all crew members or sabotage the unidentified ship. The game can be played with a voice chat or a text chat. Although it was originally launched in 2018, with very few receptions from cybernauts, the game received a huge influx of popularity in 2020, as many famous Twitch streamer began to play it. A sequel was also announced in 2020 in response to the acceptance of the original. This fame that the video game has gained has made it go to other platforms. An example of this is the creation of Among Us stickers on WhatsApp. The popular Wistickers app has released a series of emojis with the game's characters and some of the most used phrases during games. Photo: Capture (Swipe left to see more photos) WhatsApp is one of the few apps that cares about its users' experience when it dives into its app, which is why they make updates frequently, making communication between people more practical and simple. However, not everyone knows how to get the most out of the popular app.1 Hands-free voice notes: By simply holding down the microphone icon and dragging up, you can lock the voice note function to record without holding your phone with your hands. An option that works surprisingly!2. Mark the main messages: To get this option, you need to use the star message feature, where you'll easily mark the key messages you'll see in a central location. All you need to do is press the message you want to save as your favorite, and then tap the star icon. If your computer is an iPhone, you can find all the recommended messages by going to Settings and Recommended Messages or selecting chat name and tapping Recommended Messages. For Android users, they'll need to press More Options and then Recommended Messages.3. Review your messages without touching your phone: If you want to be able to review WhatsApp without having to use your mobile device, what you need to do is download the whatsapp web desktop app, which will project mobile conversations onto a computer. So you can send messages, photos and gifs without having the equipment in your hands. 4. Use stickers in conversations: Emojis become a thing of the past, nowadays stickers give you a more fun way to express yourself. You can find them in the field where text is entered into a conversation, in a small square icon with a bent side page, where you can also add your own stickers and bitmois.5. Read messages without being online: The option to hide Read Receipts is not the best option if you want the other person not to know that you have read their message. Therefore, gently lifting the message to the screen and opening the full text on the iPhone lock screen is the best option to go unnoticed.6. Manage who can add us to groups: Nothing bothers you more than being added to a group full of strangers. That's why Whatsapp has developed the option to manage who can add us to groups. When you enable the contacts you want to receive messages from, these people will need to send us an in-app invitation link. Only if we accept it can we be added to the group. To activate a contact, we need to go to &gt; Settings &gt; Groups &gt; Security and select from the options: All, My Contacts, or My Contacts, except.7. You have control over groups: There is a way to change the group settings so that only we can change the group image or name. To do this, go to Group Settings, and then edit group information. Here are the 7 tricks you probably don't know. Whatsapp always surprises us with news, so it's likely that in a short time we'll update our list.
