Overall this game is really fun but the number of ads is making me crazy ☹️ the only way to get rid of watching ads but you still turn them at the bottom and side of your screen in airplane mode in general this great game. Challenging levels but there are not many types of them. Many startup levels are fairly similar. One thing I want to point out is constant advertising. They are after you complete the level and in between trial and error that comes with trying to finish the level. Tip: To avoid ads placed in airplane mode and turn off your WiFi☹️ I wish there were more clothes to buy because I am Level 115 and I have all the clothes. It definitely makes you feel like you're playing to achieve something. But overall it's a fun game! I suggest if you are bored in quarantine or just time to kill. This game is very challenging I love it but I think there are too many ads every time I continue the ad☹️ And I think they should add a little more characters even a boy character if you have a guy playing this game you might want to be a guy not just a girl. However all of those things that make this game great every time I want to play a game I look directly at it and I just find it very tempting I just want to play it so much fun, so I call it four stars *speer makers who made this or something please change those problems, oh and one more thing you really should try Get this game it's 🤩 there, wow, what a great review! Thanks :-)) so great to hear that a real fan like yourself appreciates our game. And thanks for the suggestions!
