JessicaThis class is amazing! Instructors are all so fun and energetic, and I love getting stuck on music while getting my sweat on. Such a great way to start from the day. Great experience! We loved the hotel that guests loved: Dulses edition hotel Great cycling studio with great customer service and amazing instructors.kathleenCaroldeanTOP RECENZENTSGreat value $$... and customer service is superior . even during trying times, they go above and beyond to experience favorable. The staff were very friendly and helpful. The music was loud; they offered ear plugs that were useful. Great time in class. The instructor was awesome and the music was great! BenjaminIt is such a great time! I feel so good about myself during and after. Made my week! The room was quite small and the bathroom was quite small. It's a challenge and a great workout. The staff were very friendly and helpful. Note: don't load your Groupon credits if you want to use it for a free intro class. I had my groupon credit already and they used one of my loans for free in class. It's disappointing, but I will still be back and can buy extra rides! CassidyI LOVE CycleBar. Great instructors and atmosphere. Exactly what I was hoping for and more! Excellent staff and instructors. Very well done! Training was a super challenge, but super motivating. I'm definitely coming back. workouts and helpful staffSee all reviewsS received when a user has written 5 or more reviewsOr more reviews Want to earn this badge? Some athletes want to focus on endurance. Others want to unleash their competitive spirit. Still others are hoping to get their chakra energy flowing. At CycleBar, there's an indoor cycling class for all these purposes and more, each with its own light show and music. It's not just music, either. The class playlists are high-octane, carefully curator mixes top 40 hits and indie songs, starring artists from Iggy Azalea to Phantogram. Regardless of the themes and ringtones, all sessions have one main thing in common: high-tech stationary bikes, which the CycleBar team dubs intelligent. While not quite self-conscious enough in vain about their steering symmetry, cycles do store each athlete's workout stats that allow long-term fitness tracking. KristenHELPFUL REVIEWER's Mail #1 the reason why I go there, they are fantastic as well as support staff. I have to say, it's expensive, and the cost, I hope, shows- it's a big fight for me to juggle to get to work after my trip – having to drive 20 minutes home for a shower, then head to work is embarrassed to say more.
