Star wars spaceship lego

© 1996-2015, Amazon.com, Inc. or its subsidiaries The Force is strong with LEGO Star Wars sets. Star Wars toys first hit shelves in the mid-1970s. It wasn't until the release of The Phantom Menace in 1999 that the Star Wars-themed LEGOs game sets and ships entered the galaxy and changed all our fates forever. Whether it's the big Death Star LEGO set or the cheap LEGO Star Wars Clone Wars sets, the new Brick kits allowed kids to build entire scenes from the ever-expanding Star Wars universe. There are so many cool LEGO Star Wars toys out there that it's harder to find the best than to win the Battle of Malachor. And for parents who want to save some Imperial Credits, we've also rounded up the best deals on LEGO Star Wars sets, which by definition include some of the best LEGO sets. From LEGO Star Wars ships and AT-AP Walkers to Snowspeeders and Sandcrawlers, these are the legendary Star Wars sets that let you recreate epic moments from your favorite scenes. These are the Star Wars LEGOs that every young Jedi should own. The Most Collectible Star Wars Lego Sets LEGO Star Wars: A New Hope 75244 Tantive IV Building Kit Finally, the legendary iconic spaceship from 'Star Wars: A New Hope', with an accessible interior, huge engines and detachable escape pods. The set includes Bail Organa, Princess Leia, Captain Antilles, C-3PO and a Rebel Fleet Trooper, as well as an R2-D2 droid figure. LEGO Star Wars Episode VIII Kylo Rens TIE Fighter Thanks to Kylo Rens dope TIE Fighter Craft, this is one of the biggest LEGO sets from 'The Last Jedi'. Sure, he killed his father. And yes, he is a bit divided about his future in the Evil Empire. But one thing Kylo Ren has on lock down: the coolest ship in the galaxy. It has trigger-activated spring-loaded shooters, of course. LEGO Star Wars Imperial TIE Fighter This is without question one of the most remarkable ships in the entire Star Wars galaxy. Based on the design in the history of Solo: A Star Wars, this one features two feather-loaded shooters and four minifigs, including a young Han Solo. LEGO Star Wars Poes X-Wing Fighter Another iconic ship, Poes X-Wing Fighter, has four feather-loaded shooters and opening wings. But then there's much to like about Poe Dameron's X-wing fighter from Star Wars: The Force Awakens, from its visually eye-catching black-orange color scheme to its retractable chassis. Comes with a Poe Minifig to steer the ship. LEGO Star Wars Snowspeeder Built and ready to go with the Snowspeeder and Speeder Bike, nothing can stop children from loading their disc shooters and rushing to the Echo Base defense. This set, which is made with Star Wars Pilot hero Wedge Antilles and a Snowtrooper minifigure is the perfect intro for preschoolers, both for Lego and for the pantheon of Star Wars heroes and villains. LEGO Star Wars Emperor Palpatine Palpatine One of the most memorable moments in all Star Wars comes at the end of Episode III Revenge of the Sith, when Emperor Palpatine takes an almost dead Anakin Skywalker and kills him in a black life suit that marks the birth of Darth Vader, the strong arm of the galactic empire. This set contains everything you need to capture this scene in Lego: the Imperial Shuttle, a battle-hardened Anakin, Emperor Palpatine, a medical droid and clone pilot. The top of the ship also opens, perfect for a good look at Anakin's tragic transformation. LEGO Star Wars TIE Striker The great thing about this ship is that its menacing look reflects the dark tone of 'Rogue One' – arguably the darkest entry in the franchise. The LEGO TIE Striker features large adjustable wings, a front and rear opening cockpit and comes with four minifigs: TIE Pilot, Imperial Ground Crew, Imperial Shore Trooper and a Rebel Troop. LEGO Star Wars: The Clone Wars Anakin's Jedi Starfighter This is not the most complex Lego set. Nor is it the fanciest. But it is a very iconic ship from the Clone Stars, with an opening cockpit, retractable landing gear and firing stud shooters. This set includes a clip for Anakin's lightsaber, a hidden compartment for additional ammunition, a space for the R2-D2 droids and wing stud shooters. LEGO Star Wars: A New Hope Luke Skywalker's Landspeeder No reason to buy a full-priced land speeder for a young Jedi still learning to navigate the Tatooine Desert. This discounted land speeder has room for Luke and C-3PO to race across the sand together. Includes Luke's blaster rifle, macrobinoculars and a constructed cave hideout for the armed Jawa minifigure. LEGO Star Wars Episode VIII First Order Heavy Assault Walker This killer set allows kids to recreate epic battle scenes from Star Wars: Episode VIII, The Last Jedi or galactic battles. Based on the design of 'The Last Jedi' (and not from the greatest Star Wars movie of all time, 'The Empire Strikes Back'), this impressive 1,300-piece All Terrain Armored Transport (AT-AT) Heavy Assault Walker features detailed armored coatings, movable legs and head, a slot and rapid-fire bolt shooters. LEGO Star Wars Slave I This is the famous bounty hunter icon ship from the original movies and The Clone Wars trilogy. It measures 7 inches high, 17 inches long and 14 inches wide, and has two different modes for landing and flying. In landing mode, the cockpit rotates and the wings fold down to simulate hovering. Of course, it comes with Boba Fett and a carbonite-covered Han Solo from the end of 'Empire Strikes Back'. One thing to keep in mind: It takes seven hours to build, so plan your Accordingly. Best Deals on Star Wars Lego Sets LEGO Star Wars Set: The Empire Strikes Back Action Battle Echo Base Defense 'The Empire Strikes Back' Spends A Lot of Time on Hoth, The Icy Icy Icy this is the place of one of the biggest battles of the franchise. Create it with an AT-AT Imperial Walker, Echo Base, five minifigures and weapons that actually fire. The coolest part of this set are the color-coded goals. Beat them with the included artillery and spring-loaded minifigures are launched into the air. If your kids tend to get bored of their Lego sets once they're done, this set is a good choice. LEGO Star Wars Death Star Cannon It's not every day that you can get a good deal on a death cannon. Children 7 years and older can build a tractor beam control tower for Obi-Wan Kenobi for disarming and manned the laser cannon (spring-loaded to fire actual missiles) by a Death Star mini shooter. LEGO Star Wars Duel on Mustafar This affordable set allows aspiring Jedi knights to re-enact these iconic Anakin vs. Obi Wan battles on the planet Mustafar. It is very detailed and has rotating platforms to recreate the epic lightsaber duel. It is ideal for children from 7 years. LEGO Star Wars Set: Action Battle Endor Assault Kit Kids create their own Forest Moon Set from Endor, which includes an Imperial Speeder Bike, a buildable tree and even Wicket the Ewok minifigure and a Scout Trooper minifigure. You can load shooters and hit actual targets with this set, which is intended for builders from 7 and older. Each product on Fatherly is selected independently of our editors, authors and experts.
