My mission is to provide students with a safe and supportive learning environment where they can develop skills to be a confident performer. For me, it is important that students learn in genres that they are most comfortable. I myself have a love of all genres of music, including classical, musical theater, pop, rock, folk, and even punk. In my studio, students will learn and maintain a healthy technique in their own way to be able to achieve any of their creative or professional goals. In addition to learning voice engineering, we also strive for a round music education that includes music theory, ear training and music literacy. I am a professional soprano, flutist and composer. I graduated from Bridgewater State University with a bachelor of music. When I was at school, I won the 2014 World Championships. Since graduation, I our goal is to connect people with the best local experts. We scored boston music schools more than 25 variables in five categories, and analyzed the results to give you a hand-picked list of the best.
