APKCombo Games Action BadLander New 1.0 - adnOzd June 15, 2016 (5 years ago) in Badlanders, Welcome Here, once on the ruins of a great civilization, scavenshis fight for treasure and glory. Red Beach Sanctuary was once home to the world's most advanced weapons technology, but in the face of natural disasters it has become a sign for the protection of science and technology for all mankind. However, the war broke out and the protection plan collapsed was short-lived. All that remains on that bloody beach are great ruins, rival scathing eaters and endless opportunities... Gear and get ready to enter the hot zone of wealth and danger. ESCAPE EVERYTHING IMPORTANT 25 badlanders, each enter the battle for your own purpose. Why take enemies head-to-head to rob their loot, or slowly create an arsenal of crates scattered across the map. But what did he come here for to distract you a lot, find valuable loot and take it out in one piece! SPOILS, FIRE AND GAMBLING ON LIFE AND DEATH Enjoy the adrenaline rush of intense encounters? This battlefield is for you! Whether you're armed from head to toe while enjoying the advantage of war, or trusting a knife in the hope of catching someone off guard and stealing their gear, war is always the fastest path to wealth. Here, some get rich overnight, while others lose everything. GEAR DEVELOPING, BUILDING AN ARSENAL How to increase your chances of survival to get more loot? It might be a good idea to develop gears. Weapons, armor, grenades... All enhancements can be brought to the battlefield. But beware, you will get the attention of bigger gear, eager to get the hands of more other badlanders. We develop Cyber Hunter First of all, it provides us with introducing Game. Cyber Hunter is the next generation of competitive mobile virtual games. It is packed with many other elements including survival, shooting, exploration, skill and parkour! In short, a completely new gaming experience. The game tells the story of our future after the technology of interaction between brain and computer became very advanced, and human civilization experienced another evolutionary leap during which major events began to open up. Justice is against evil. Old against new. And the forces of conservatism clashed with radicalism. In this virtual world, all our heroes and heroes have obtained super power with the help of quantum droids - the ability to convert the energy of the quantum cube into any necessary tactical auxiliary device. From optical camouflage to quantum barriers, from a detector that warns as enemies approach a medical vehicle that heals teammates; You can build anything and anything, that's not all. You can choose skills that you think will help your strategy in any battle. We even created the concept of vertical war. With parkour features such as climbing, skating and skating, players can take on vertical battles during various terrains, including mountains, marshes and deserts. In this game, the arena where your battles take place is not only a big flat map, but also a world where you can fly through the sky and go underground. We've also created several research points scattered around the world. Here you can explore desert temples with a chance to find the electronic core to unlock new skills and weapons. Among the destroyed piles of robots you can also find gloves that greatly increase your climbing speed. We hope Cyber Hunter will give you a new way to enjoy the game and enjoy participating in the virtual competition it offers. There is still room for improvement in the game, however, if you experience overheating, slowdowns, intermittent restarts or updates on your device while playing, we apologize in advance and ask for your understanding. We assure you that this version does not reflect the final quality of the game, but one thing more fun is just the beginning. Your valuable suggestions and opinions will drive Cyber Hunter's continued development and our ongoing efforts with enthusiasm and passion. Finally, we would like to express our gratitude to you for downloading and supporting our game. Thanks!
