Harvest church riverside pastor

Greg Laurie Bourne (1952-12-10) December 10, 1952 (age 68)Long Beach, California, USAmericanOccupationPastor, authorEmployerHarvest Christian ScholarshipsNation for the HolyStze CrusadesTitleSenior PastorSpouse (s)Katherine (m. 1974) is an American writer and pastor, senior pastor of the Harvest Christian Brotherhood in Riverside, California, Harvest Crown at Crown, California Harvest Woodcrest in Riverside, California, Harvest at Kumulani in Capalua, Hawaii, and Harvest Orange County in Irvine, California. Greg Laurie was born in Long Beach, California. He was raised by a single mother who had seven marriages, often moving to very different places such as New Jersey and Hawaii. While working as a newspaper deliveryman for the Daily Pilot in Los Angeles, California was Greg Laurie's first job. Lori was not raised in a Christian faith or a church environment. In 1970, when Laurie was 17 years old, he became a devout Christian at Newport Harbor High School under the Ministry of Evangelist Lonnie Frisby. At the age of 19, under the direction of Calvary Pastor Chuck Smith, he was given the opportunity to lead the Bible study of 30 people. The church that formed from this group, harvest the Christian brotherhood, grew to become one of the largest churches in the United States. In 2013, the Christian Harvest Fraternity celebrated its 40th anniversary. The church has another special campus in Irvine, as well as four satellite campuses (Woodcrest, Eastvale, South Corona and Lahaïne, Hawaii) with a congregation of about 15,000 people, as well as the homes of more than 80 ministries. The harvest recently merged with the Kumulani Chapel in Maui, Hawaii, and this church is now called the Kumulani Harvest. Laurie holds two honorary doctorates from the University of Biola and the Pacific University of Azusa. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Billy Graham Evangelical Association and is also a chaplain of the Newport Beach Police Department. In 2013, Laurie was honorary chairman of the National Prayer Day Task Force. President Donald Trump has selected Pastor Laurie as one of several evangelical church leaders to attend a National Prayer Service organized at Washington National Cathedral after the president's inauguration in 2017. In 2017, Greg Laurie organized a movement called The Year of Good News. Several church leaders signed a letter he wrote to initiate the movement. One paragraph of the letter reads: During fake news, distracting news, conflicting news, erratic news, and sometimes depressing news, we, as Christians and as leaders, want to reaffirm our request that the Good Faith of Jesus cut through all this. We call on Christians in America to make 2017 the year of good Publisher and Media Laurie has written more than 70 books, including The Upside-Down Church (1999, co-authored by David Copp); this book won the Gold Medallion Book Award in the Christian Ministry category in 2000. Lori wrote educational notes for the New Believer Bible and the Seeker's Bible. He also wrote notes to begin with! The Bible in the new version of King James, published by Thomas Nelson. Another more resting book is a commentary on the book of Revelation. His autobiographical documentary Lost Boy: The Next Chapter won eight awards at international film festivals in the Best Documentary category. Laurie's film, released in 2013, Hope for Hurting Hearts, includes stories by Jeremy Camp and Nick Vujicic. The film was a finalist at 15 different film festivals. Laurie is the host of the syndicated radio program New Beginning, which is broadcast on more than 800 radio stations around the world. The new beginning is also presented as a Christian podcast available on iTunes. Laurie has appeared on ABC World News Tonight, Fox News, MSNBC and CNN. He is also a guest commentator at WorldNetDaily and regularly appears in a weekly television program called GregLaurie.tv on the Trinity Broadcasting Network (TBN). The television program is also shown every week on the American TV channel Forces Network. Lori is the speaker of a public evangelical event called Harvest Crusades, founded in 1990. These are large-scale evangelical outreach projects that local churches organize nationally and internationally. More than 5.6 million participants have participated in the Crusades since they began in 1990. In addition, 1.8 million reportedly watched the event online. The Crusades were held in California, Chicago, Seattle, Oregon, Philadelphia, New York, Hawaii, Florida, Texas, North Carolina, New York and Australia. The events took place at ATT Stadium in Dallas, Texas, Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles, California, Angel Stadium in Anaheim, California, and Madison Square Garden in New York. In 2017, Harvest Crusades will include Christian musicians and bands such as Phil Wickham, Switchfoot, Chris Tomlin and TobyMac. In 2012, Harvest Crusades launched Harvest America nationwide with a simultaneous movement from one place to about 2,400 seats. In 2016, Harvest America took place at at ATT Stadium in Arlington, Texas. A total of 82,000 people took part in the event. Another 180,000 people attended more than 7,000 reception centres across the country. More than 400,000 people have made public faith trades at events since the harvest of the Crusades began. Lori lives in Newport Beach with his wife Katherine. The couple had two sons, Christopher Jonathan, as well as five grandchildren. On July 24, 2008, Christopher was killed at the scene of a car crash on.m the eastern Riverside Highway west of TheErfas Serfas Club. In Corona, California. He was 33 years old. In October 2020, Laurie signed a contract with COVID-19. On October 5, 2020, Laurie announced that he had tested positive for COVID-19. In a video posted on social media, Laurie said: I just want us not to be able to politicize this at this time and show compassion for the people who are struggling with it. It's real, the pastor said. It is indeed a pandemic that has gripped our nation and even the world. It is not known where Laurie contracted the virus, though he reportedly may have been at a White House event. On October 9, Laurie announced that he was feeling very good and that he had completed his quarantine and planned to return to preaching.
