If you are not satisfied with your order Reason, contact the Publications team on 0203 469 8333 and we will help you find a solution. When you join Strategic Trader, you will get your account number in the email you receive from us right after you join. You can also find your account number at the bottom of any of our Weekly Update and Business Alert emails. Once you have your account number, you can set up your username and password. Your username will be the email address you used to register with Strategic Trader. If you already have a custom job username and password from another InvestorPlace Media subscription, you don't need to create a new one for Strategic Trader. Your existing username and password will work for Strategic Trader as long as you are a subscriber. To create a unique username and password, you'll need your account number and zip code. Your account number can be found at the bottom of our Weekly Updates and Trading Alerts or in the email you received when you joined Strategic Trader. You can also call Customer Service at 1-800-219-8592 for assistance. Click here to create your username and password now. My username and password don't work. Remember that your password is case-sensitive, so you must enter it exactly the way you set it up. I forgot my username and password. What should I do? If you have forgotten your username or password, we may email them to the email address you provided when you registered. Click here to choose this option. How do I change my username and password? If you have already created a unique username and password, click here to change it. If you have not created a unique username and password, click here to begin the process of creating your unique account. I already gave you an email address when I signed up for the service. Why do I have to give it to you again? The email you gave us when you created your username and password will only be used to send you an email if you forget your username and password. For security reasons, we keep this information separate from your other account information, so you may have more than one email address registered with us.
