Clean Racing is key to Success Hatch Games Ltd • Rebel Racing is quite an auto racer - the main active input method you can do to influence the performance of your car is to move left and right. After a while, your precious car picks up speed and eventually bypasses the rest of the competition. To keep that strong speed streak intact, you need to stay on the road all the time and race as clean as possible. • It also means you should avoid drifting too hard, hitting other racers to the point of turning in the opposite direction or sweeping to the side of the road. Keep in mind the feats of Rebel Bonus during the race - they are represented by your overtaking, drifting, drafting, and air time performance. Try to earn some extra points in one or all of these Rebel bonus categories so you can earn some more cash at the end of the race. As soon as your boost is available, REV IT UP! Hatch Game Inc. • One of the mechanics you will come to rely on during each race is your Nitro Assist Boost. It usually pops up every time you get rid of an impressive drift. Whenever your boost is available, use it as soon as possible! Don't save the boost for the end of the race, people - take advantage of it immediately so you can grab an early lead and continue to accelerate faster as the race progresses. Focus on upgrading your current rides on buying the new One Hatch Game Ltd • It is very easy to earn cash. Making a lot of cash is a bit hard to achieve and also a pretty long process. Every time you earn enough cash to upgrade your current ride, it's the best! You just use your cash to do so. Saving all the cash to deal with a new ride is not really worth it, to be honest. Continue to improve the different attributes of your chosen vehicle so that you can compete at a higher PP level. • Get new rides through limited-time events. In addition, as a bonus reward, you can get a new car import by winning different types of keys given to you through the completion of the event. Help Center Two heads-to-head for the Mini Cooper S Round 1 this week begins today and Round 2 begins on January 1. Complete the ladder too for mini ornaments and fusion credits that give you a boost! => => Did the Mini Cooper S get in your stockings? Hi everyone! please claim those prizes. I wanted to play Rebel Racing 31 times in a row, complete all of the S-Tier bosses and just share my opinion on the game. I really like a lot of aspects of rebel racing, but I don't like others (like other games). I really like it. - AI racing is competitive at a fast pace and car destruction physics makes the game really fun for me. When I do a simple gold race, I make sure to bang on the car or two to keep it interesting. I like the car upgrade system and augment it to the max, but I'm not a big fan of fusion mechanics because getting fusion credits seems boring. The only way I've found is to attend an event (using gold) and get company credit for the event. What I don't like is the salary for winning sides, but I think developers need to make money somehow. Unless you pay real world money for them, your choice of car is very limited and sucks in my opinion like that. I've never spent real world money on mobile games or on mobile games and don't plan, but that's my decision. I recently challenged the first head and thought it was very fun. The ranking system looked fair and the race was exciting. It makes sense for a player who put money in for a better car to perform well with a salary to win a game, but I can't complain about that. My problem with the head and the latter event is that you have to enter them with gold. Money is hard to get by (unless you pay a crazy amount of real money for it), so I stock it up like a dragon and hate to spend it. I think the limit on the number of races you can do in a certain amount of time can get the game to pace well or finish in a few days. But once these gas cans are gone, you can't play any kind of sucking game. Maybe developers can add some type of practice mode that allows them to compete with the ghosts of your best lap time to map with each car without using gas? TLDR: A fun game, but dampen the fun you pay to win. Page 2 6 Comments Comments
