The couple emigrated to Australia from Northern Italy, from mountain villages at the foot of the Italian Alps, near the historic city of Asolo. Their son, the energetic and dynamic Deen De Bortoli, (b. 1936 –d. 2003) expanded and consolidated the activity created by his parents. Deen's children established De Bortoli's reputation for premium wine, including noble one icon dessert wine and Yarra Valley wines. The Italian family values handed down by Vittorio remain fundamental values, there is a culture of hard work, generosity of spirit and sharing good food, good wine and good times with family and friends. Below is a selection of Yarra Valley Wines, all made by winemaker Steve Webber, with the exception of the infamous Noble One dessert wine, made in New South Wales. Steve is married to Leanne de Bortoli. Leanne is manager of the Yarra Valley estate and they have two children, Kate and Sally. WineOnline.ie had the privilege of a masterclass with Steve when he visited Dublin recently, where he went through all these wines. We are proud stockists from the entire De Bortoli range and supporters of a visit to Steve and Leanne vineyard in the Yarra Valley when we are in Melbourne. We wish them continued success and many happy years to come! Le Cirque Wine Co Duck Shoot Adelaide Hills Pinot Noir / 2018 / 750mL Tasting notes: Duck Shoot Adelaide Hills Pinot Noir is soft, light purple in color. Aromas of strawberry and forest bottom. Soft and rich in characteristic silky tannins of Pinot Noir, the wine has length to help stabilize any goal. Vinification: Cold soaking and the inclusion of a percentage of whole bunches preceded fermentation using a variety of yeast that enhances aromas and produces a wine with complexity and balance. After fermentation the wines are carefully put to oak barrels French seasoned for a short time to regulate the intricate Pinot Pinot Before mixing the individual parcels are evaluated for suitability and quality. This wine had minimal manipulation and only the most delicate filtration to preserve the taste of the fruit. About the vineyard: coming from a carefully selected vineyard in the cool Adelaide Hills, south Australia's home of the world's most fickle and fussy grape. The combination of altitude and micro climate magically combines to cultivate this elusive variety at an ideal maturation. Cool, dry conditions prevailed in the hills in the winter before the 2018 vintage. Soon, but also, budburst and good fruit set preceded the mild weather in December and early January which provided perfect ripening conditions. Mild conditions followed, and decent rain in late January refreshed the vines and set them up for harvest in March, just on schedule. On the palate, this is elegant, smooth, urban and long. Everything is perfectly proportionate: the oak tree is well integrated. Just a little quiet, calm and tidy; a slight lack of excitement to it. But once again this must be demanding with what is an exceptionally well-made wine. Tasmania & Victoria Pinot Noir Quite taught about fruit, this wine needs to age. Clean flavors, still evolving, delicate shades of violets and and Cherries. Tasting: Tasmania & Victoria Pinot Noir Intense and pronounced nose with notes of berries and vanilla oak. On the structured and juicy palate with beautiful integrated oak and a long aftertaste.
