Learn more Brewed with centennial and yellow hops, Rocket Science is a mild but citrus American IPA that is bitter and refreshing. Is it a West Coast IPA, full of enamel hops and tongue braking? Lol It actually combines well with food and doesn't destroy your palate. A refreshing, well-structured and pleasant IPA that embodies the hue of the American South? Why is rocket science! The print menu customers want. Sell more beer: Printed menus designed to help your customers choose beers. Learn more A more modest IPA than some of the more aggressive versions of the West Coast now out there. Although hops and malts are balanced, Rocket Science remains a full-bodied American-style IPA, not an Englishman. Yellow and Centennial hops provide notes of tangerine and pine. He's not a unicorn hunter. Just a good IPA.
