Party city hours las vegas

Courtesy of Vdara Hotel & Spa With its reputation for reveling, Las Vegas has long been a favorite destination for bachelorette getaways. Who doesn't love about the weekend of the city with some of your favorites in nod, with any number of recreational activities in your beck and call? From Luxe retreats to around 24 hours a day eats, Las Vegas delivers at any time of the day and is constantly upping the ante with new offers. Thinking about having your bachelorette in this wonderfully fabulous destination? Here's what you need to know right now. Courtesy of Cosmopolitan Las Vegas Cosmo Is (Still) The Big Deal. Landing on Las Vegas Weekly's Best of Vegas list again in 2016, Cosmopolitan Las Vegas is not resting on its laurels as one of the hottest properties on the Strip. Instead, the resort is adding to its cache, having recently opened a 10,000-square-foot outpost of the New York City speakeasy-style lounge and eatery, Beauty & Essex, as well as the first outpost of Los Angeles cult fave Eggslut, which will be open overnight for select nights to feed the late night crowd. Juice Standard, a local micro chain of cold pressed juices, offers an additional menu of cold pressed cocktails just off Cosmo's location; The Momofuku project is also slated to open later this year. Courtesy of the T-Mobile Arena Vegas is a huge new stage in addition to the many entertainment offerings up and down the Strip, the city this spring opened the T-Mobile Arena, a state-of-the-art venue that will host both pro-sports games and blockbuster concert tours, including Gwen Stefani, Drake, Kanye West, and the Rolling Stones. Cross-check schedule before you set your bachelorette dates – the concert here could be the highlight of your weekend. The park, a huge outdoor plaza dotted with art facilities and open-air restaurants, now connects the arena with the New York-New York and Monte Carlo hotels; the 5000-seat theatre is also about to open. Get Your Culture On – No, Really. The local art scene is having a moment. First Friday's 18B Arts District in Downtown Las Vegas has mash-up gallery openings, open studios, street vendors and dining and imbibing specials in other local institutions (set to stop by the Velveteen Rabbit). In addition, the Las Vegas Contemporary Arts Center this year moved to its new permanent home; for a little vintage Vegas, don't miss the Neon Museum, which collects retired signs from casinos, hotels, motels, and wedding chapels. What could be the perfect Instagram bachelorette group photo opp? Courtesy of Delano These bespoke deals are quite a suite from the Nobu Hotel inside Caesars Palace to Delano, a South Beach offshoot located on the upper floors of Mandalay Bay, the resorts are getting creative with the bespoke offerings that often come with VIP amenities. Inches Aria Sky Suites has a private elevator entrance and only guests can use the ARIA sky pool and spa delicacies, including chilled towels, frozen grapes, cocktails and more. Nearby, Vdara Hotel & Spa, an all-suite non-gaming property that connects to ARIA and Bellagio through the walkways, is tucked far enough from the bustle of the Strip's completely different vibe, yet never too far from running. Think the penthouse suite is beyond any reasonable stretch of imagination? LINQ Hotel, a new Caesars offering focused on Millennials that opened last year, has two penthouse suites rates that start at $700 per night. The hotel also offers poolside cabana rooms that go out on the pool deck and include waitress service from the pool bar during the day, because, well, they can, it's Vegas, baby. Whether you're a soon-to-be bride or a maid of honor, the best bachelorette party destinations are those who have something to please all at the bridal party.
