Overall4food4service3ambience3There is a group of 7 women who have not seen each other in a year, and they first put us at a high rectangular table in front of the open kitchen. That's never going to work. public works. The staff was kind enough to move us to a small, private room, with a large round table, which was perfect. However, with cement floors and high ceilings, it's hard to hear even in a private room! Everyone though food is good. Created with Sketch. Created with Sketch. Sketch. with Sketch. Created with Sketch. Created with Sketch. Overall5food5service5ambience4For a normal meal, this place is excellent. Food always stands out. My only complaint is the noise level. It's hard to continue a conversation. The bone marrow burger on the bar menu is excellent, as is the chocolate charm cake. Created with Sketch. her I dedicated through the open table. She said they do not accept bookings for the below 6. Wait a short time, we ordered 2 belinis. It tasted like grapefruit juice that my husband couldn't have. We told the waitress. She says she's not sure what's in it but will change it for a mimosa. He got mimosa and then she asked if he wanted to keep Bellini because they would throw it out. Then I said ok I'll take it. After a few sips I could not drink it. Really bitter. When we got the bill, $75 later, the waitress told us that her manager said she couldn't compile Bellini because I drank it. Really? The waitress asked if we wanted it because they were going to throw it out! Our food is delicious but the service is very bad. Bread Winners-Trophy Club offers takeout that you can order by calling the restaurant at (469) 283-6903.Bread Winners-Trophy Club is rated 3.9 stars by 4 OpenTable diners. Six of us eat here around 10.30am on a Sunday morning and don't have to wait for a table, which is absolutely amazing! Start with plates of homemade bread, cranberries, pumpkins, etc. very tasty. After a lot of thought, I finally... Decided to scramble Leo's favorite with a fruit side. Others in our party chose Benedicts, pancakes, steel-cut oatmeal, scrambled eggs and other scrambled and everyone raved about their choices. Home potatoes are roasted with rosemary and have a great taste. The only limitation is that the noise level is so loud I can't hear two people at the other end of the table to chat mostly with people sitting next to you or directly opposite you. Also, we have no complaints! Will definitely visit again and next time, I promised myself a piece of one of their amazing looking pies or cakes! Furthermore I've been going to this place off and on for over 12 years, we've always enjoyed it, but the last 2 times we've been we've had the same waiter – one that's been there for 13-14 years. He's very pleasant but extreme slow and dramatic. He promised some things that we never had such as milk for coffee, sugar, extra nape, etc. My coffee got cold and it wasn't sweet enough. Only 2 goals were taken in Everything else is empty, so it's not because he's too busy. He seemed very distracted with socializing with employees and people walking in and out. Then he called my kids mijos a few times, not sure what that meant or why, but we were Italian and he assumed we came from another race, without bothering me but it didn't fit. He needs to tone it down and focus on providing proper service, however, the food is good, not great but interesting enough. Thanks for reading. Read.
