Every time I click to play it shows only the main menu concept of the game is very fun and unique. Because you don't expect a zombie to be a pogo master. The problem is the abundance of ads that appear frequently and can not even be skipped. I also found a very annoying failure in the game, if after a few seconds (or immediately) gameplay, the startup screen appears, blinding you to the actual game. Please make all the ads possible to skip, fix the bug, and I ***** this game. Thank you. This game is really fun and I have nothing that I think should be improved by the game. Although the game is perfect, there are many ads. They are really annoying because they randomly play i in the middle of your run, causing you to die. Please fix this problem with your ads, but keep doing a good job with your game. Developer PlayFlame LLC has not provided Apple with details about its privacy practices and handling of the data.
