Dragonvale dragon egg list

Posted by Dr. Macenstein on Wednesday, May 30, 2012 · 496 Comments NOTE: If you'd like to see our full DragonVale Breeding Guide, click here. So every once in a while you will create two dragons to begin breeding and be hit with a long 20 or 24 hour breeding time and you want to know what is that the dragon will be when they finish making it ugly? Is it worth rushing it with gems? Well, here's a quick list of the different breeding/incubation times for the various DragonVale dragons to help you out. Please note that these are the aisles of STANDARD breeding caves, so if you have upgraded your Epic Breeding Island or Breeding Cave to speed up breed times, multiply these times by 1.2 as these caves speed the breeding season up by 80%. (Even when you have an egg, these times will sync up with incubation times if you can't identify the eggs you get). Some dragons share the same breeding seasons, so you'll need to use your brain a bit and think about the elements you mixed to know if your 8-hour race time will be a flaming or an ice dragon.
