Crew present in the building. As per NY State Law, masks are required on entering the Bat Pan to help prevent the spread of COVID-19. Any customer not wearing a mask will be denied entry. Beating the Bomb doesn't mean to be a physical test of fitness, strength, or endurance. However, you'll be encouraged to move quickly, pull, and fold yourself into the laser room games (it can get sweaty!) You will also have to move your position around x14 x14' tracking room for 10 min. Game rooms, except for the bomb room, are 10 minutes each. Please contact us to discuss any physical condition as well as access for people with disabilities at info@beatthebomb.comA very small percentage of people may experience a crisis when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or that may appear in video games. Even those with no history of crisis or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause those epileptic epilepsy while playing a game such as the beat Bomb.Sa are shocked there may be a variety of symptoms, including stunning, vision changing, eyes or facing twitch, earthquakes or shaking of arms or legs, rationalization, confusion, confusion , or loss of momentum. Crises can also cause loss of awareness or compilation that can lead to injury from falls or hitting nearby objects. Immediately stop playing the Beat Pan and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents must watch or ask their children about the symptoms above. Children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience such crises. The risk of epileptic epileptic crisis may be reduced by avoiding playing the Beat of the Pan while you are intoxicated or fatigue. Moreover, if you or any of your family has a history of crisis or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing. This is entirely your discretion. We encourage you to play, and then sit out any games or elements of your game not to feel comfortable doing, but please consult your doctor to discuss any concerns before playing beat the bomb. Here is information you'll want to know: The ground in places that can be wet, and while we have floor non-slip, we'd recommend being careful. The pan gown is tall 1 and is often dripping and paintings from a recent explosion! In addition, our rooms are black. Travel or slide are not likely, but you'll need to be careful extra! The laser room is quite active, and encourages you to move quickly, pull, and fold your way back and forth via a laser in a 10' x 20' room. However, you can decide which laser model you want to try, as well as play the coach on their side if you'd like to sit this one out (if so, start practicing you to watch that laser!) The bomb itself can give you a pause. It feels like a wave of paint, or giant paint-filled water balloons hit you, but it doesn't hurt. It is not painted. We'd gladly show you a demonstration before you begin. But if you want to sit it out, we'd be glad to have you as our guest in the Control Room, sitting with our Pan Tech to watch play the final game!a. Due to our COVID-19 temporarily able to have guests in our control room, but we'll gladly direct you to sell us where you can watch your Team's live stream on the big screen! screen!
