Traditionally, Chardham Yatra is undertaken from west to east. Thus, the Yatra from Yamunotri, then proceed to Gangotri and finally to Kedarnath and Badrinath. Among the four Char Dham, Yamunotri and Gangotri are dedicated to the goddesses Yamuna and Ganga respectively. On the other hand, Kedarnath is dedicated to Lord Shiva while Badrinath is is to Lord Vishnu. In addition, people also visit Hemkund Sahib nearby, which is one of the highest religious sites in the country. These religious places include Yamunotri, the sacred source of the Yamuna River, Gangotri - the source of the holy Ganges River, Kedarnath - the home of Lord Shiva and Badrinath - which houses the shrine dedicated to Lord Vishnu.. The famous temples known as Char Dham Destinations are Yamunotri, Gangotri, Kedarnath and Badrinath. Yamunotri Temple is dedicated to the river goddess Yamuna, the twin sister of Yama (Lord of Death). The gangotri temple is dedicated to the goddess of the Ganga River. Kedarnath Shrine is dedicated to Lord Shiva. Badrinath Temple is one of Lord Vishnu's holiest shrines in the form of Lord Badri. There is no fixed age limit for Char Dham Yatris. Since the yatra will pass through the high altitudes, and there is a lot of walking, so the preferred age range is between 7 and 65 years.. The best route to complete Char Dham Yatra, starts at Haridwar, proceeding to Barkot(Kharsali), where pilgrims can visit Lord Vishwanath Temple. The first sacred place is the sacred Yamunotri to pay the obeisance to the goddess of the Yamuna River and obtain the blessing of the Lord of Death and the Sun God. Proceed to Uttarkashi and then to the sacred site of the ganga river's origin in Gangotri. Proceed to Guptkashi and then visit the sacred Kedarnath Temple, Lord Shiva Sacred Shrine. Later, I travel to Rudraprayag, proceeding to Lord Vishnu's divine home in the form of Lord Badri at Badrinath. After completing the Yatra, start your journey to Joshimath and then Haridwar. This route covers most of the important shrines that guarantee pilgrims, a yatra complete with spiritual bliss. The soul that enriches Char Dham Yatra with helicopter service is a great innovation in covering this one of the most acclaimed pilgrimages with ease and comfort. Set among the mountainous terrain along with the majestic backdrop of the snow-capped mountains and narrow trails, Char Dham Yatra not only physically taxes, but also takes up a lot of mental energy. With Pilgrims and Hindu devotees flocking to Dham sites every year during the open seasons, a number of alternative transport facilities are introduced for their sake of convenience. Now completing the whole trip is no longer a hassle and a physically demanding experience. Along with the availability of pony rides and Dollys there are helicopter services available for the pilgrim who does not have the time, energy or physical ability to complete the journey on foot or through other modes. With an attempt to minimize the hassle for devotees making their way from all over the nation such as Chennai, Bangalore, Kochi, Trivandrum and Hyderabad, Mumbai, Surat, Chandigarh, Lucknow, Jaipur, along with people from various remote places from Orissa, Assam, Gujarat, Maharashtra and much more. Still, racing has come as a boon for the elderly and even for individuals with physical disabilities. Char Dham Yatra's impeccable helicopter services ensure your journey is fruitful and hassle-free.
