Jarrell big baby miller vs anthony joshua

13 February, 2019The deal is done and unified heavyweight champion of the world Anthony Joshua arrives in the United States.Joshua, the British superstar, will make his U.S. debut defending his three world titles for the seventh time against first-time contender Jarrell Big Baby Miller on June 1 at Madison Square Garden in New York in a fight that will be broadcast on DAZN, announced Wednesday by matchroom boxing promoter Eddie Hearn.La fight that was negotiated over the past few weeks by Hearn Miller's co-promoters Dmitry Salita and Greg Cohen and DAZN, will celebrate Joshua's first fight outside the UK, where it is front-page news and is full of stadiums on a regular basis, including a British boxing record of 90,000 at Wembley Stadium in London for his epic round of world champion Wladimir Klitschko in the 2017 fight. Joshua is not only crossing the pond, but also doing so to fight in Miller's hometown, born in Brooklyn, New York. On June 1, I'm going to the Big Apple and plan to embrace the culture and come out with an appetite for more, Joshua said. I'm fighting Jarrell Miller at the legendary Madison Square Garden. It has been an honour and a blessing to fight in some of the best places in the world at home in the UK, and not at least at Wembley Stadium. But it's time to cross the Atlantic and defend your heavyweight titles in the US. I can't wait to face another challenge with a good boxer and a brilliant speaker. It's going to be an exciting fight. I leave nothing to chance, and I intend to dismantle Miller in style to make my mark. Joshua and Miller will meet at a face-to-face press conference at Madison Square Garden on Tuesday to begin promotion and again at the second press conference on February 25 in London.Hearn wanted to bring Joshua (22-0, 21 KOs), 29, a super-heavy gold medalist to the 2012 Olympics to the United States and will do so in an arena where heavyweight legends are in the box. If you look at the great heavyweights that are decorated with the famous Boxing Mecca names Ali, Frazier, Marciano and Tyson stand firm and June 1 is the time when the world is witnessing AJ's turn, said Hearn.Miller (23-0-1, 20 KOs), 30, has thrived as he rises and becomes one of the best contenders. Four of his last five victories have come against former heavyweight world title challengers, including knockouts from Gerald Washington, Mariusz Wach and Tomasz Adamek, and a one-sided decision by Johann Duhaupas. In his last fight, Miller eliminated the undefeated Dinu in the fourth round on November 17.Miller is also calling Joshua and they face a heated confrontation at a Matchroom Boxing/DAZN press conference in Chicago in July. Now Big Baby gets his chance to fight Joshua. AJ makes a big mistake to come here to fight me in my own backyard, Miller said. He wants to announce himself on the American stage, but he's only giving me those belts in my hand. It's going to be a dog eating a dog in the ring and this dog has a bigger bite. He's leaving New York empty-handed. It's a fight I've been chasing my whole life, and 1. This punk AJ is going to be interfering with my dreams, and 1. Hearn is very familiar with Miller because he made deals with Cohen and Sa salita to have his last four fights in the playroom with billboards. I know how much he wants this fight, and I know he and his team think they're going to beat AJ, Hearn said. It's a mountain guy with incredible discipline work and you'll have a chance to challenge (Joshua) in his backyard this summer. Joshua comes from a destructive seventh-round knockout of mandatory challenger and contender Alexander Povetkin in front of about 80,000 at Wembley Stadium on September 22 in a fight that launched the DAZN service in the United States. His next fight was due to take place on April 13, also at Wembley Stadium, with British rival Dillian Whyte (25-1, 18 KOs) expected to win a proxy rematch with Joshua, winning the knockout seventh round in December 2015 before claiming the world title in April 2016.But Hearn fought to close the Why dealte and DAZN also expected to fight Joshua in the US. The U.S. could broadcast its fight on Saturday night instead of the afternoon as it did when it began its service to the US with the Povetkin fight. , Hearn's problems with Whyte and DAZN agreed to put in additional millions. Joshua agreed to the idea of fighting in the United States. Top Rank is already working on a replacement so that Forrest doesn't go up to the study Bubble at the MGM Grand Convention Center. Carlos Takam could be the replacement. We're aware of the situation, the Nevada State Athletic Commission [NSAC] will temporarily suspend you Monday morning, said Top Rank Boxing Vice President Carl Moretti Steve Kim of ESPN. In 2019, Miller planned to challenge Anthony Joshua on July 1. He was replaced by Andy Ruiz, who eventually beat the British. At the time, Miller's application for a boxing license was denied by the New York State Athletic Commission, and the AMB gave him a six-month suspension. Miller hasn't fought since. The last time he appeared in the ring was in November 2018, when he finished Bogdan Dinu in the fourth round.Miller (23-0-1 and 20 knockouts) signed for this year's Top Rank and this fight was supposed to be a reboot of his career. The 31-year-old American fighter was also suspended for nine months in 2014 by methylhexanemine on his kickboxer days. Confirmed joshua's team is scrambling to find a new opponent in the bout on June 1 at Madison Square Garden, New York Anthony Joshua fight Jarrell Miller has been officially called off after the American was refused a license due to a failed drug test. The Voluntary Anti-Doping Agency (VADA) recently noted irregularities in the Miller test that has been licensed by the New York State Athletic Commission as a result. Miller (right) has refused his boxing licence decision to leave Joshua having to find a new opponent in his US debut at Madison Square Garden on June 1. Miller, 30, is still awaiting the outcome of his B-sample and can still re-apply for his licence, but the situation is unlikely to resolve soon. Several opponents have been touted as potential replacements for AJ reportedly interested in fighting Luis Ortiz while Manuel Charr claims to have turned to take on the British fighter. Usyk still wants Anthony Joshua next - but agree with Deontay Wilder Will Ruiz be a champion again? I love that fight, Joshua promoter Eddie Hearn said. It's the perfect scenario, it's a big fight. I know his team, even though my feeling about them was that he's not ready. But the argument is that it's a harder fight than Jarrell Miller. Hearn is on a mission to find a new opponent for Joshua Another way for Joshua is Kubrat Pulev, who he had to fight in October 2017 before the Bulgarian withdrew due to injury. Meanwhile, undefeated Polish heavyweight Adam Kowanacki has been linked with a bout as he is based in New York. Joshua has reportedly told Hearn he is ready to fight absolutely no one with the news now confirmed Miller cannot compete. Pulev could get his chance to fight AJ after withdrawing from his initial bout in October 2017 I just told a mate, I've got some terrible news, Miller has failed a drug test, Hearn said. He said, You're joking. He didn't even sound so surprised. He said, Who's next? I asked him who he wanted and he said absolutely no one, no problem, nobody.
