Meet the snowman and enjoy festive food and outfits. Sometimes when I try to watch an ad to do something my game will crash but won't return to a normal iPad home screen... So the creators of this game read this (good outfit7), but still you solve this! But apart from that this game is the best! Tom is cute there is a lot of great types of clothes, and my favorite... Whatever you say in a nicer voice Tom says I also like the blender to make drinks for Tom and rate your style where Tom and someone else Tom have a fashion show basically who gets the most votes on their clothes wins! And plus nothing costs money well if you want to get more coins or something.... you could do that, but you could also do a few other things and I forgot those other things... But if you ever decided to get this game your decision is perfect because this game is fun funny and especially the best game I've ever had! Also creators of this game I have a suggestion maybe we can get some toms I know a lot of work but more fun! Thanks for reading my review and remember that you are perfect! I played this game for about a month, then removed it. Later I downloaded it again for less than a week and then deleted it. The concept of this game is cool. You get to take care of your own pet cat (it looks and acts like a child except for different colored furs, a tail, and ears). I'm a little older than the intended audience and I've noticed that some of the ads might be inappropriate or disturbing to small children. It also gets boring after a while. In My Angela, another game from Outfit7, the gameplay is a little more interesting and addictive. Another problem with this app is that you look tom at the bathroom. You can't see anything, but it's a little inappropriate. One issue that a lot of reviews talk about, but I disagree with is the man in Tom's eyes. First of all, in all my I've never seen him before. Second, from what I've heard, it's just a few pixels in Tom's eye that happen to look like a person. Third, if there's one person in Tom's eyes, it's probably just details. Details. That it looks like he's seeing you. Finally, parents, you know that Tom repeats what your child says; it's part of the game! This is my opinion on this issue, and I would recommend this app to kids over 6, with parents understanding that this app has a bit of questionable content. Thanks for reading. I am aware that this game is aimed at kids 4-8 y/o. I'm 14 y/o and playing this game, mostly out of nostalgia. I've played Outfit7 games since around the time Talking Tom came out (I was about 4), and I've played My Talking Tom from the time it was first released when I was 11 or 12. I've been seeing a bunch of ads lately for this game and I decided, why not?, so I downloaded it. I play it for a few hours in total, and I would say I like this game. I don't like it, but that's based on personal preference. I find this game more childish than the first My Talking Tom game (not that the first game wasn't childish), the visuals are a whole lot softer and everything is 10 times easier. However, I can't really complain about that because it's aimed at small children, as I said before. I can't really see myself enjoying this long-term game like I did with the first My Talking Tom game (partly because of my age when MTT came in compared to my age now, and partly because of personal preference), but I 10/10 recommend it if you are under 8, or if you are a parent or smth and you want to keep your child(s) busy for a while The developer, Outfit7 Limited, indicated that the privacy practices of the app may also include the processing of data as described below. I love the app but I just feel like someone is stalking you because that cat always sends you messages and I have Tom 1 and Tom 2 and it's weird they both notify me at the same time sometimes other than that app is pretty good I like the outfits you put on him and the clothes are a pretty good price for the toy coins on the game. Also, I played the game and my mom played it once so she downloaded it on her phone because she liked it. I cover the camera with a sticky not when I play the game. because you know but I guess the kids would really like it. Ok, so I heard these rumors everywhere and frankly there is fake. I'll share why the rumors are fake. First, the talking apps aren't the only apps they make, so if you click on the thing that says developer shows the talking apps aren't the only apps they make. so if they're actually kidnapers or something I'm sure those apps would have bad reviews too, but no there are normal games! Secondly, I had these apps forever and I'm still here with my family. Ok that was all my reasons lol, but the videos about these rumors are still fun to watch, but the rumors are fake. Thanks for reading! Okay, I don't know exactly what I just read the truth about Outfit 7 again it's true or not. Yes, this game is very hilarious. I've been playing outfit 7 since I was a kid. But then I noticed the rumors about the hacker in this game. I'm not sure if this is true, but I've read the reviews of 2020 people were still complaining about the hacker.
